100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the surname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1819.

The following dialogue presents nothing brilliant, but those acquainted with passing occurrences will not perhaps consider it altogether fictitious. Should the result be approved, there is no telling how far it may be imitated;—the document alluded to, in the conclusion, will readily be furnished on the shortest notice.

Subscriber.—Hard times, Mr. Printer!—You have a small bill against me, and I shall attend to it when money is a little more plenty. I hope business will be better before long.

Printer.—I hope so too—but in the mean time my expenses are to be met; not only the calls of the office are to be regarded, but the business of eating and drinking must be attended to, and this you know requires cash in hand.

Sub.—A little delay can't make much difference—and you will no doubt get money enough from others to answer all your purposes.

Prin.—The course you mean to pursue will perhaps be followed by others, and what is proper for one will not be denied to be equally so for another. It neither accords with my inclination or views to be pressing—but the fact is, I have nothing to depend on but my exertions; these are to defray my expenditures, and my expenditures you know must necessarily be provided for daily.

Sub.—As for your expenses, I hope you receive enough regularly to pay for them; and waiting for what is above that will be no disadvantage.

Prin.—I should with pleasure wait any period that might be required for any sum due me, did not urgent necessity preclude the indulgence of my wishes in this respect. I purchased, you know, press, types, paper, &c. to commence business with, and some of these I was obliged to procure on credit, and they must now be paid for.—My journeymen are so addicted to old habits, that in defiance of any remonstrances they will continue the practice of eating and drinking, and those who board them must be paid weekly. I am too little known at the bank to obtain a discount, and if I were not, I am not sure that it would not be prudent to obtain one, for I could only repay it out of my earnings, and if these could not be realized even to meet ordinary expenses, they would not enable me to pay borrowed money and interest into the bargain. You who handle hundreds and thousands of dollars, perhaps daily, find, no doubt, though they may quickly pass from hand to hand, that enough sticks by you in their passage to answer your particular calls; but my earnings are moderate—if these are not got, I am without support; my workmen must be discharged, and my establishment destroyed. I was in hopes, when I began business, that by unceasing industry I should not only be able to pay for my materials, but that within the first six months' labor I should be able to buy a new coat—but the fact is, I am obliged to brush up the old one, and must make it last a while longer; but though I can do without a coat, I cannot put off the business of eating, and the butchers and bakers do not seem to change their prices in consequence of hard times, and they require prompt payment, and if I can make no collections their demands cannot be discharged, and my supply of rations, of course, ceases.

Sub.—The force of your remarks I feel—the justice of your claim I acknowledge—it is both my wish and intention to pay your demand—no doubt you feel the pressure of the times as well as myself, and this, instead of being an argument for delay on my part, should rather be the cause of more promptitude in such cases as yours—for if I can make out by detaining such a small claim, I can make out without it. Here is the money for the amount of the subscription in advance, you will be good enough to give me a receipt, and accept my best wishes for your success.

Prin.—The receipt I shall furnish with pleasure, and were all my customers to solicit a similar article, I can assure you it would be no small stimulous to exertion, and would greatly sweeten the labor it was intended to reward.

Washington, September 18.

The Corporation of this city have formally declined any measures to restrict or interrupt the intercourse, either by land or water, between Baltimore and this place. In consequence of a communication from the Corporation of Alexandria, announcing the regulations which had been adopted in that town to guard against the introduction of contagion, and suggesting the expediency of a co-operation on the part of this city, the Mayor called a meeting of the City Council on the 15th instant. Various propositions were offered and discussed in both Boards, touching the propriety of clothing the Mayor with additional powers, to act in particular cases; to subject vessels to examination by the health officer before entry, &c. &c.; and the whole subject was maturely considered by the Council. Their deliberations resulted in the adoption of a resolve, that, in consequence of the advanced state of the season, from an examination of the reports of the different Boards of Health, &c. it was inexpedient at this time to adopt any quarantine measures, in regard to vessels from Baltimore or any other place. [National Intelligencer.

A naval rendezvous for shipping Seamen for the U. States' ship Columbus, is opened near the navy yard in this city. [Ibid.

By a gentleman who has lately visited the scite of Fort Washington, 14 miles below this city, on the east bank of the Potomac, we learn that the buildings, &c. have made rapid progress within the present year. The fort has already an imposing appearance, every way in contrast to the inefficient fortification, on the same scite, which was blown up on the approach of the enemy's squadron in 1814. It is supposed the fort will be finished within two years. Whilst it will be impregnable to any force which is likely ever to be bro't against it, it will be a noble national work, worthy of the purpose for which it is intended, that of covering the public establishments and public archives at the seat of government from future invasion. Captain Maurice, of the engineers, superintends the work, and Lieutenant Ansart, of the artillery, at present commands the post.

ATTEMPTS TO ROB THE MAIL STAGE.

Two attempts to rob the passengers, if not the mail, were made on Sunday night last, between Warrenton and Louisburg. The first was by a boy and two men (negroes); the boy being discovered in the act of cutting the straps which secured the baggage behind. The latter, by a single black man, who was mounted behind, when fortunately, a young gentleman, passenger, beheld him, and reaching round, aimed a blow at him with his dirk, upon which the fellow leaped off and dashed into the wood at the side of the road.

Baltimore, Sept. 18.

On the morning of Tuesday last, the body of Dederick Woolf, carpenter, was found suspended by a rope attached to a joist in a small wood shed in the rear of his late dwelling in South Howard-street; where, it appeared from circumstances, he had hung himself during the preceding night. A jury of inquest was held over the body by John S Abell, Esq. one of the coroners for Baltimore county, who found a verdict of suicide. [Fed. Gazette.

Twenty-six new cases of fever were reported for the twenty-four hours ending yesterday morning. We are sorry to state that it has assumed an unusual degree of malignancy.

NEW-YORK BOARD OF HEALTH,
September 17—noon.

The resident physician reports five new cases of yellow fever for the last twenty-four hours. J. MORTON, Sec'ry.

Extract of a letter to a gentleman in Philadelphia, dated N. Orleans, Aug. 16.

"The fever has commenced amongst the shipping, and God knows where its ravages will end. On board the steam-boat Alabama, the captain, mate, and steward died within two days, and the Vesuvius has lost one man to-day. The physicians say that the yellow fever of this year is the most virulent they have seen here. Report says 30 have died to-day. Fear is apt to exaggerate, and I would fain hope that it is not so bad as reported."

Extract of a letter, received in Philadelphia, dated Havre, August 3.

"Our market is very animated. New-Orleans cotton, 40 to 42 sous; uplands 36 to 39, none at market; 4000 Bengals have been sold at 13 to 1, in entrepot; and 3000 Surats at 16. There is no fear of a decline in these prices. The weather having been very fine, flour has declined, and, by a law just passed, is not admissable at present rates. Rice has been sold at 30 francs to 32 per 50 kils; it would not do if bought higher than 3 1-2 dollars per cwt. The rate of this article will not be fixed until the result of the harvest is known. No Kentucky tobacco will be bought by the regie, fine Virginia's alone will sell, the autumn being about to commence; pepper has sold at 17 sous in entrepot."

Halifax, (N. S.) Aug. 27.

A small schooner, about 30 tons burthen, painted green, but no name on her stern, sailed from Baltimore early in the present month. She had a crew consisting of 8 or 10 men, armed with small arms, &c.—Their intention was to cruise off the coast of Nova Scotia, at some distance from Halifax—to entice on board their boats whatever negroes they might meet with, under pretence of fishing—to convey them to the vessel—secure them, and take them to N. Orleans or elsewhere for sale. They are represented as a set of desperate fellows, who will stick at no cruelty to effect their purpose—the master is described as a stout man, having lost one eye—and the vessel is called the Andrew. Amongst the crew are some persons formerly belonging here, and one of them is well known as a native of the town. Descriptions of the vessel and her crew, have been sent to different parts of the coast.

Charleston, Sept. 13.

SPANISH SQUADRON.

We are informed, by a passenger in the schooner ECHO, from Havana, that on the night of her departure from that port, she was spoken by the Spanish frigate Sabina, having under convoy several transports, with 3000 troops on board, from Cadiz for Havana.

A letter from St. Augustine, (E. F.) dated August 31, to a gentleman in Savannah, has the following paragraph: "The governor received on Saturday last, despatches from Madrid. Capt. Ross, commander of the Charleston cutter, came on shore with them. The reason of the delay of the ratification of the Treaty was, that Don Onis had not arrived; but as soon as he arrived the ratification would take place."

There are a number of English gentlemen coming from Nassau, N. P. to purchase lands.

There are three schooners and sloops from Charleston with cargoes, to be discharged when a change takes place. The Governor expects the Americans will get possession in all October.

There are also several vessels at St. Johns, discharging their cargoes.

From late London papers.

The Traveller of the 4th of August contains the following

ADDRESS OF THE MANCHESTER FEMALE REFORMING SOCIETY.

The Manchester Female Reformers' address to the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the higher and middling classes of society.

Dear Sisters of the Earth,

It is with a spirit of peaceful consideration and due respect that we are induced to address you upon the causes that have compelled us to associate together, and the miserable partners of our woes. Bereft not only of that support the calls of nature require for existence; but the balm of sweet repose has long been a stranger to us. Our minds are filled with horror and despair, fearful on each returning morning, the light of heaven should present to us the corpse of our famished offspring, or nearest kindred, which the more kind hand of Death hath released from the grasp of the oppressor. The Sabbath, which is set apart by the All-wise Creator for a day of rest, we are compelled to employ in repairing the tattered garments to cover the nakedness of our forlorn and destitute families.—Every succeeding night brings with it new terrors, so that we are sick of life, and weary of a world where poverty, wretchedness, tyranny and injustice have so long been permitted to reign amongst men.

Dear Sisters, we feel justified in stating that under the oppressive system of Government that we now live, the same fate that hath overtaken us, must speedily be the lot of many of you, for it is said in the word of God, "Where the carcase is there will the eagles be also;" and this we have proved to demonstration, that the lazy boroughmongering eagles of destruction have nearly picked bare the bones of those who labor. You may then fairly anticipate that when we are mingled with the silent dust, that you will become the next victims of the voracious borough-tyrants, who will chase you in your turn, to misery and death, till at length, the middle class of society is swept by their relentless hand from the face of the creation.

From very mature and deliberate consideration we are thoroughly convinced, that under the present system, the day is now at hand, when nothing will be found in our unhappy country but luxury, idleness, dissipation and tyranny on the one hand, and abject poverty, slavery, wretchedness misery and death on the other.—To avert these dreaded evils, it is your duty now, therefore, to unite with us as speedily as possible, and to exert your influence with your fathers, your husbands, your sons, your relations, and your friends to join the Male Union for constitutionally demanding a Reform in their own House; viz. the Commons House of Parliament, for we are now thoroughly convinced, for want of such timely reform the useful class of society has been reduced to its present degraded state; and but for such a reform the English nation would not have been stamped with the disgrace of having engaged in the late unjust, unnecessary, and destructive war against the liberties of France, that closed its dreadful career on the crimson plains of Waterloo, where the blood of our fellow creatures flowed in such mighty profusion, that the fertile earth seemed to blush at the outrage offered to the choicest works of Heaven, and for a space of time was glutted with the polluted draught, till the Almighty, with a frown upon the aggressors, threw a veil over the dismal scene.

Let us now ask ourselves the cause of this dreadful carnage; "was it to gain immortal happiness for all mankind," or if possible, "was it for another purpose?" Alas! no, the simple story is this, that all this dreadful slaughter was in cool blood, committed for the purpose of placing on the throne of France, contrary to the people's interest and inclination, the present contemptible Louis, a man who had been living for years in this country in idleness, and wandering from one corner of the island to the other in cowardly and vagabond slothfulness and contempt.

Let it be remembered at the same time that this war which was to reinstate this man, has tended to raise landed property three fold above its value, and to load our beloved country with such an insurmountable burthen of Taxation, that it is too intolerable to endure longer; it has nearly annihilated our own flourishing trade, and is now driving our merchants and manufactures to poverty and degradation.

We call upon you therefore to join us with heart and hand to exterminate tyranny from the face of our native country.

It affords us pleasure to inform you, that numbers of your ranks have voluntarily mixed with us, who are fully determined in defiance of the threats of the Boroughmongers to aid us in our just and Constitutional career. Our enemies are resolved upon destroying the last vestige of the natural rights of men, and we are determined to establish them, for as well might they attempt to arrest the sun in the region of space, or stop the diurnal motion of the earth, as to impede the rapid progress of the enlightened friends to liberty and truth. The beams of angelic light that have gone forth through the globe hath at length reached unto men, and we are proud to say that the Female Reformers of Manchester have also caught its benign and heavenly influence; it is not possible therefore for us to submit to bear the pondrous weight of our chains any longer, but to use our endeavor to tear them assunder and dash them in the face of our remorseless oppressors.

We can bear no longer to see numbers of our parents immured in workhouses, our fathers separated from our mothers, in direct contradiction to the laws of God and the laws of man; our sons degraded below human nature; our husbands and little ones clothed in rags, and pining on the face of the earth. Dear Sisters, how could you bear to see the infant at the breast, drawing from you the remnant of our last blood instead of the nourishment which nature requires—the only subsistence for yourselves being a draught of cold water? It would be criminal in us to disguise any longer the dreadful truth; for in the midst of these privations, if we were to hold our peace, the very trees of the forest and stones of the valley would cry out

These are a few of the consequences resulting from the mad career of the Boroughmongers: war, to say nothing of the thousands that have been slain, the widows and orphans that have been left destitute and unprotected, the hypocritical hireling, will blasphemously tell you, that these things are of Divine ordinance; in vain does he publish this to reason and common sense. The Great Author of Nature makes no distinction of person; the rich and poor are all alike to him; and surely the forked lightning, the awful thunder, the terrible earthquakes, and the howling and flaming volcanoes, are sufficient to chastise the most obdurate, without man becoming the oppressor of man. We close the disgusting scene, for language would fall infinitely short in painting the portrait of our woes in all its horrible deformities.

In conclusion, we earnestly entreat you to come forward—posterity will bless the names they see enrolled under the banners of Reform. Remember that all good men were Reformers in every age of the world. Noah was a Reformer; he warned people of their danger, but they paid no attention to him. Lot did in the like manner, but the deluded people laughed him to scorn; the consequence was, they were destroyed.—All the Prophets were Reformers, and also the Apostles; so was the great founder of Christianity, he was the greatest Reformer of all; and if Jesus Christ himself was to come on the earth again and to persist against the Church and State in the same manner he did against the Jewish and Heathen nations, his life would assuredly be sacrificed by the relentless hands of the Borough Judases; for corruption, tyranny and injustice, have reached their summit, and the bitter cup of oppression is now full, to the brim.

By order of the Committee,
(Signed) SUSANNAH SAXTON,
Secretary.
Union Rooms, Manchester, June 20, 1819

Extract of a letter, dated St. Helena, May 20, 1819.

"The governor has been very busy lately at Longwood, superintending the placing of the iron palisadoes, which he has brought up to surround the new house building for Bonaparte. About 500 men of the regiment are employed daily, at a shilling per diem each, in carrying stones and other materials for completing it. The duty is very severe, as the men who are relieved from guard in the morning are obliged to go on working parties immediately after their return to Deadwood, and those who mount guard in the evening are obliged to work until four o'clock; it is thot that it will be finished in 8 or 9 months.—So little is known of Bonaparte, that the authorities here have no other mode of ascertaining either his actual presence, or state of health, than by the reports of some person who obtains a casual glimpse of him at his window, or sitting on the steps of the billiard room. Whenever any person sees him, even through a telescope, he is obliged to report the circumstance, and is generally made to say that he looked very well, and appeared in perfect health.

"The 20th regiment are at Francis-Plain, and are not yet allowed to mount guard at Longwood, as the governor does not wish that the prisoner should have any communication with persons lately arrived from Europe.

"Madame Bertrand is well, but very seldom comes into camp now, as the governor sent word to colonel Dodgin to have her watched and followed wherever she went to. It is said that Sir Hudson Lowe is to be removed, and that the government will devolve to Sir George Bingham; we are anxious to hear a confirmation of this, as we are heartily sick of the present odious system. Mr. Baxter, the governor's body physician, who has been ill for a long time, has been sent home, it is supposed with dispatches. The prohibition against the introduction of newspapers into the Island is as rigidly enforced as ever, and I have only seen two for the last 4 months."

Died,

On the 1st instant, in the midst of life and of usefulness, Dr. JOHN A. CASEY, a native of Maryland, but for many years resident in Georgia. In the death of this gentleman society have lost a distinguished and faithful physician, a warm patriot and an honest man; his immediate friends, an affectionate and benevolent associate; and his family, a kind, solicitous and efficient guardian. May the wise and merciful disposer of all things—the God of the widow and the fatherless, sustain and console them. [Savannah Repub.

Alex'a. Common Council.

September 18th, 1819.

A communication from the Mayor, enclosing a letter from the Treasurer, was received and read, and referred to Messrs. Keith, Smith, Ramsay and Robinson.

The Surveyor made a report on the subject of the petition of George Drinker and others, referred to him, which was read.—Whereupon, Ordered, That Messrs Neale, J. C. Vowell, Ramsay and Rhodes be a committee to examine the pavement running from Alfred to Columbus-street, and report to the next meeting of the Council, whether it be expedient to alter the pavement of the same from a convex to a concave form, agreeable to the views expressed by the surveyor in his report, or any other practicable alteration for the benefit of the parties interested.

Mr. Gird, from the committee appointed on the subject of the Vagrant law, reported a bill, entitled "An act to amend the several acts concerning the Poor House & Work House," which was read a first time, and laid on the table.

Mr. Keith, from the committee to whom the Mayor's communication was referred, reported a bill, entitled "An act for the issuing of Due Bills in the name of the Corporation of Alexandria," which was read a first and second time and recommitted.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and is further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity whcih teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
